RICH ACTOR.—It must be nice to be a successful actor. Leonard Boyne out of his salary of $625.00 a week, has managed to save enough to maintain a magnificent country establishment in England, where he has a very fine stable of horses, and one of the best kennels of hounds in the world. And yet so great is the fascination of America that he will give all this up next year for a starring tour in this country.

ONCE OF SALEM.—The Portland Telegram of Saturday evening contained this very interesting item in its court news: "The trial of C. B. Clement indicted for perjury in a case before the United States land commissioner was set for January 8th." Clement will be remembered by Salem people as a kind of detective here during the past year. He first came to light here about a year and a half ago as secretary of a populist meeting. He is now somewhere in California and was at one time an active member of the Good Templars of this city.

COLLISION.—Two men, named Uliri and Horner, somewhat drunk, tried on Christmas night to steer a buggy over an electric car on State street. As a result, both found themselves in the mud, and the buggy wrecked. Uliri has a badly swollen hand and an eye in mourning and both got fines for being drunk.

TAX BOARD.—The State Board of Equalization met at 1 p. m. today, at the State House. This week they conclude their work of equalizing values, beginning with the first district and going through by number. The public will soon know the result of their month's labor.

A GREAT RUSH.—One of the stores that enjoyed a magnificent holiday trade was E. T. Barnes' New York Racket store. Ten sales people were employed waiting on the throng, yet scores of customers were turned away without even getting attention.

GENEROUSLY REMEMBERED.—The people of the Unitarian church on Christmas day very kindly and appropriately remembered Mrs. H. B. Holland, their vocal soloist, by presenting her with a beautiful gold watch.

OUR DAILY BEVERAGE.—Do we have the best? That is what we want. The way to get it is to try those excellent lines of teas, and the fine Mocha and Java coffee at Van Eaton's.

CHRISTMAS DRUNKS.—Three men, a woman and a vagrant—a young fellow who has a mother to support, were sentenced by Recorder Edes this morning.

GILMAN COAL.—The best fuel in town, $8.00 per ton. Salem Improvement Co.

FLAMES AT WOODBURN.

Ten Buildings and Considerable Merchandise Destroyed.
Sunday night at 7:30 fire was discovered in the store of Bruce Bros. at Woodburn, on the opposite side of the street from the Southern Pacific depot. In a few minutes the entire building was blazing with flames. A 50 pound keg of powder exploded with sufficient force to scatter the building. The flames spread to adjoining structures, and for a time threatened to wipe out the entire block. The overland passenger train was delayed by the great heat that scorched the depot some, but the train soon passed by on the switch. The real estate office north of the burned block, occupied by L. G. Barton was fired and guarded until it burned down to keep the fire from spreading. All of one block burned except the Cumberland Presbyterian church and parsonage.

WILLAMETTE NOTES.

The building is deserted, only three boys spending their vacation in the dormitory.

President Hawley takes part in the State Teachers' association held in Portland this week.

Miss Cook Martzell, who was in school in 91-92, and who has been attending school in the East, is a guest of Mabel Jones, on Marion street.

Dean and Matron Hansee are visiting in Portland this week. The young ladies have all gone home, and the Woman's College is in a state of solitude.

If newspapers and side talk could have brought about a football game, the C. B. C. boys and the W. U. F. A. would have had several games by this time, but the fellows who have the management in hand, have taken no steps in this direction as yet, and will not, until the weather will justify adequate practice.

In the mock house of Representatives of the Philodorian society on Friday night, the bill in substance, that all voters should be able to read the constitution of the United States, was brought to the third reading, and after some warm and extended discussion, was lost. Probably the next bill to come to discussion, will be the appropriation of $25,000 to the re-survey of the Nicaragua canal.

The Philodrians, aware of the fact that Salem is unable to carry the number of entertainments already on hand, and wishing to enlarge the funds for the purpose of beautifying and making more comfortable their hall, are to give an entertainment at Turner, Wednesday, Dec. 27th, consisting of music, dialogues, pantomime, ballad. The town was billed in an imposing manner, on last Thursday, and the boys are preparing to put some college spirit into that little burg, which shall bring to their coffers a fair remuneration.

College Int. Secretary Y. M. C. A., E. Lawrence Hunt, addressed the Christian association yesterday afternoon. Mr. Hunt reports flatteringly concerning the coming convention of the College Y. M. C. A., of Albany. Willamette sends at least twenty delegates.

A Valuable Remedy.

Hon. Edmund L. Pitts, the late president of the New York State Senate, writes:

"I have used Alcock's Porous Plasters in my family for the past five years and can truthfully say they are a valuable remedy and effect great cures. I would not be without them. I have in several instances given some to friends suffering with weak and lame backs, and they have invariably afforded certain and speedy relief. They cannot be too highly commended."

Tutta Pills give appetite and good digestion.

In the Social Realm.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gilbert spent Christmas at Jefferson.

Mrs. John Giesy, Miss Gussy Giesy and A. W. Giesy spent Christmas in Aurora visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Darling, Mrs. Al. Nash and Miss Clara Churchill left yesterday to spend the Christmas season in Hubbard.

Mrs. C. M. Parmenter went to Portland Sunday to spend the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. Holly Cornell.

Col. and Mrs. Wagner, of Hotel Willamette decorated a fine old-fashioned German Christmas tree for the family, and the regular guests of the house were given a glimpse too.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Johnston entertained about thirty friends at their home in Yew Park, Saturday night. The program included a drama entitled "Thirty Minutes for Refreshments," which was well played. Tableaux, recitations, after which refreshments were served. Then they "tripped the light fantastic toe" until 12 o'clock.

A pleasant party was given at the home of Werner Breyman on State street last night. There was a select company present. Refreshments, cards, and dancing were the order of the evening.

CHRISTMAS WEDDING.

Married, at the home of the bride's parents on High street, Salem, Sunday, Dec. 24, 1893, Mr. D. L. Craven of Independence, and Miss Lucinda Harris, Rev. G. W. Grannis, of the First M. E. church, officiating.

Married, at the residence of the bride in this city, Dec. 24, 1893, D. H. Laollet and Mary R. Orego, Eld. Wm. Manning officiating.

TRANSPORTATION NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Steamer Elwood came down from Corvallis last night, and went to Portland today. Her schedule, formerly three round trips per week between Portland and Salem, has been changed to two round trips between Portland and Corvallis, leaving Portland every Sunday and Wednesday, at 6 a. m., and Corvallis every Monday and Friday on return trip. This schedule gives her one day, Thursday, of each week to handle business on the river between Corvallis and Harrisburg.

The Modoc came up last night from Portland, and went on to Corvallis. She brought a small lot of freight for Salem. She returns here this afternoon, and goes down in the morning.

The Altona will be up tonight and will go on up the river to Independence, returning here in the morning, and will leave here for Portland at 7:30 a. m.

The Oregon City Enterprise is authority for the statement that the Oregon City Transportation Company are thinking of putting the Altona back on the Portland, Oregon City route on account of the heavy increase of travel between those points. Mitchell & Co., agents for that company in this city, deny the report. Mr. Mitchell states that the company have no intention of taking the boat off her present route, and that while the passenger traffic is not as good as might reasonably be expected considering the excellency of service given, still she is doing a fair business and has hopes of working up a better trade in the future.

The O. P. boats are no longer in the swim. All three of them, Hoag, Bentley and Three Sisters lay tied up at their dock in Corvallis. The crew of the Hoag were notified several days ago that their services were no longer needed, but as there was no money to pay them off they refused to leave the boat until after the expiration of the 15 days allowed by law. If there is no provision made today by Judge Fullerton to pay them off, after the 15 days have passed they can libel the boat according to marine law and after advertising her, sell her for their wages. In all probability the affairs of the company will be untangled today and perhaps in a very few days these boats will again be running into Salem. Opposition is the life of trade, and while the Oregon Pacific has gone into bankruptcy that company has saved the farmers and business men thousands of dollars annually by the low freight rates between San Francisco and valley points.

Sixty Miles of Locusts.

The African Steamship company's steamer Winnebago, which recently arrived from West Africa at Liverpool, had a most unusual experience when steaming between the latitudes of Cape Verde and St. Louis, Senegal. For 60 miles the vessel steamed through locusts, which were so thickly packed together on the top of the water that they completely covered the surface for miles around; indeed, they appeared to be lying on the sea as far as the eye could reach. The locusts had, no doubt, been blown from the Morocco coast into the sea. They resembled gigantic grasshoppers, and one which was secured was 5 inches in length. Of course all of the locusts had been drowned.—Westminster Gazette.

A Fish Foe.

The latest triumph of Yankee ingenuity is in an India rubber fishworm. It is said to be a remarkably good imitation of the common earthworm, is indestructible and in actual use proves as alluring to the fishes as the genuine article. The old fisherman will be quick to perceive its advantages. One can equip himself for a day's sport without digging over a whole garden in his search for bait. A handful of India rubber worms will last him a whole season, and there will be no necessity of pulling up the line every few minutes to see if the small fry nibblers have left the hook bare.—Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer-Sun.

A Dentist at Birmingham, England.

was munched in $250 damages for the extraction of the whole of the teeth of a married woman. She only asked him to extract one tooth. Previous to the operation, she testified, she could eat a crust or pick a bone with any one.

Oregon's Crank Factory.

The Crank Factory at the State House has sent out another proclamation to the dissatisfied elements to nerve them to acts of violence and destruction. Good times will never be restored in our country by howling calamity or stimulating socialism or anarchy. The man who seeks to build himself up politically by making people believe that if he were only president all would be different and prosperity would be in every man's grasp, is a demagog and an enemy of society.

Prevention is Better

Than cure, and those who are subject to rheumatism can prevent attacks by keeping the blood pure and free from the acid which causes the disease. You can rely upon Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for rheumatism and catarrh, also for every form of scrofula, salt rheum, boils and other diseases caused by impure blood. It tones and vitalizes the whole system.

Hood's Pills are easy and gentle in effect.

The editor of a paper at Storm Lake, Iowa, is now hiding in a swamp near that place in consequence of the way he mixed up the reports of a cattle show and a concert. His paper said: "The concert given last night by sixteen of Storm Lake's most beautiful young ladies was highly appreciated. They sang in a charming manner, winning the plaudits of the entire audience, who pronounced them the finest breed of short horns in the country. A few are of a rich brown color, but the majority are spotted brown and white. Several of the heifers were abnormally fine limbed animals and promise to prove good property."

"Almost as Palatable as Milk"

This is a fact with regard to Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. The difference between the oil, in its plain state, is very apparent. In you detect no fish-oil taste. As it is a help to digestion there is no after effect except good effect. Keep in mind that Scott's Emulsion is the best promoter of flesh and strength known to science.
